

LOST: Somewhere in this city, a purse, containing $75.00 in currency. Liberal reward if returned to XXZ, this office.

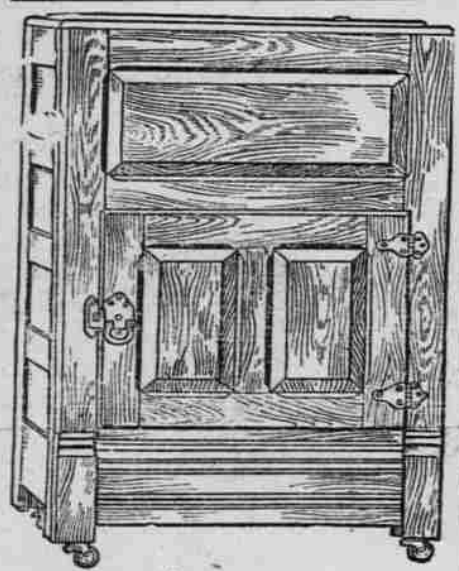

Ads, similar to the one above, appear in most every paper. Yet some people will continue to carry large sums around. Why not carry a check book, and if you lose it there is no great loss; that's the only practical way to carry money.

Start a checking account today with us, and pay by check. You surely know that we have a safe place to keep your money.

Don't wait 'till you have lost a wallet to start your account, but put it in this bank tomorrow morning.

THE First National Bank of Nogales, NOGALES, ARIZONA

REFRIGERATORS

We have just received a big shipment of "RHINELANDER" Refrigerators. It is known as the "great one-piece stone lined and the only perfect SANITARY refrigerator" on the market today.

All sizes await your selection. Prices range from

$7.50 TO $60.00

To further call your attention to this special line we will quote you SPECIAL PRICES all this month.

GEO. B. MARSH, Inc.

W. C. PAGE, Manager

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.

We handle a complete line of Lumber, Sash Doors, Lime, Cement, Douglas Plaster, Corrugated Iron, Builders' Hardware, in fact everything to build with.

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.,

T. M. FORD, Manager
Successors to Nogales Lumber Co.

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE,

Phone 671 Morley Avenue P. O. Box C.
NOGALES, - - - ARIZONA

To the Public:

We offer exceptionally liberal inducements to those who like to do their trading at or near home and avoid delays.

Best Quality, New and Selected Stock, the largest on the border, Purest Drugs most efficient clerks and prompt personal attention to all phone, mail and express orders.

YOUR MONEY BACK IF NOT SATISFIED.

A trial solicited from new customers as we are able to hold all our old patrons with above tactics in our business.

Respectfully,

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. George Danbar is back from the coast.

Get a flag and join the preparedness parade on Flag Day.

The Airdome is doing a great business, these pleasant evenings.

Monday George Dunbar, the real estate man, returned from a business trip to Tucson.

Miss Martha Crowell, a charming young Tucson society lady, is a guest of Miss Titcomb.

A new Studebaker ten-passenger auto is now running between Nogales and Bayze Lake Park.

Superintendent Kingsbury of the Sonora railway, was in town Thursday, from the south country.

The Auditorium, under the able direction of Jack Lester and Ellie Karns, is attracting large crowds.

Miss Fern Bartlett and Miss Dixie Collie, of Elgin, were county seat visitors the forepart of the week.

Miss Armstrong, of Phoenix, after a delightful visit here with her friend, Mrs. W. C. Wills, has returned home.

Mrs. Winegar, wife of W. C. Winegar of the Sonora Bank & Trust Co., has gone to Los Angeles for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCarty, from the Elgin country where they have a ranch, were county seat visitors Monday.

This week O. K. Franklin, the mining man, has again been circulating among his friends, greatly improved in health.

Mrs. Harry Hines has leased the San Antonio hotel, from Earl Hammick, and will personally conduct the same.

Tuesday Miss Vaughn, one of Nogales' efficient public school teachers, departed for Los Angeles, for the summer.

Roy Noon's family will spend the summer at Long Beach, California. They departed for the coast on Tuesday's train.

Dave Loeb, proprietor of The Popular haberdashery, has had a number of electric fans placed in his big Morley avenue emporium.

Last Sunday Editor S. D. Braselton of the Herald and Attorney Arthur DeReimer motored over to Duquesne, returning the same evening.

Judge W. A. O'Connor is in Tucson, where he went Wednesday to occupy Superior Judge Cooper's bench. The Pima county Judge is ill.

Francis Duffy, son of Judge Frank J. Duffy, is back from the University of Arizona, to spend his summer vacation in Santa Cruz county, with relatives and friends.

Harry Chenoweth's host of friends will be pleased to learn that he is again able to be at his desk in the Southern Pacific offices, after having been laid up with a bad sprain.

Robert Hannah, bright little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hannah, of Tucson, is here visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Donald, mother of Fred. Hannah and Mrs. E. K. Cumming.

Collector of Customs Charles E. Hardy, accompanied by Mrs. Hardy, returned Sunday from a month's business and pleasure visit at San Francisco and other points on the Pacific coast.

Jack Faust, son of Superintendent Faust of the International Electric Light, Ice & Water Co., is home from the Southern Arizona University, to spend his summer vacation in Nogales.

FOR SALE—Hudson. 50 h. p. car. Suitable for truck. At present cut down to racing model. Will go very cheaply. See H. W. Lindsey, Santa Cruz Valley Bank & Trust Co. 6-10-3.

Tuesday evening, an American soldier named Brickwood, fell from the cliff near the artillery camp, sustaining injuries from which he died during the night. His skull was fractured.

Today W. D. Hart, manager of The Popular, will leave for his summer vacation, during which he will attend the Democratic Convention at St. Louis, at Alternate Delegate H. W. Purdy's proxy.

John Chapin, of Washington Camp, is in the county jail, charged with killing a Mexican in a pool hall at that place last winter. He was arrested at Douglas and brought here Wednesday by Sheriff McKnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Hines, parents of Harry Hines, the building contractor, are here from Douglas, for a couple of days visit.

J. E. McIntyre, the well known mining engineer, accompanied by Frank Fitch, has gone down to the Alamos district, Sonora, to examine and report on a big mining proposition. The properties to be visited, are sixty miles from the town of Alamos.

W. C. Page, manager of Geo. B. Marsh, Inc., returned Thursday from the coast, where his family is spending the summer. Mr. Page said the folks were comfortably located in a nice cottage by the sea. After the warm season, they will come to Nogales.

Arthur Page and Roy Maley, for some time members of the Nogales police force, under ex-Town Marshal Dumbauld, have resigned, upon request of the new town marshal C. L. Fowler, who has appointed E. B. Holt and Will Simonton to fill the vacancies.

Jack and Charles O'Keefe, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Con O'Keefe, students at the University of Arizona, returned home last Saturday, to enjoy their vacation at the pleasant O'Keefe place on Morley avenue. Both boys are making fine records at the U. of A.

Harry Smith many years with Banco de Sonora, at Hermosillo, now engaged in farming near the capital city, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, came up to Nogales on Tuesday's train on a combined business and pleasure visit. Recently artesian water was struck on the Smith place.

Harry E. Grace, formerly agent here for the Southern Pacific Company, now located at Guaymas, where he represents a number of big American companies, was a business visitor here a couple of days this week. Reported business conditions in the Bay City greatly improved.

Last Saturday evening E. R. Purdum, member of the law firm of Duffy & Purdum, accompanied by Mrs. Purdum returned from an extended pleasure trip in Arizona and California, by automobile. They traveled many thousand miles through some of the beauty sections of America.

Mr. Collie, of the Coronation mines, near the Three R properties, was here the forepart of the week. He stated that work on the road connecting with the Three R road was nearing completion, and the new hoist and compressor would soon be hauled to the Coronation and installed.

John Yoas, well known, successful cattle raiser, was here Tuesday from his ranch in the Huachuca mountain foothills, making final proof on his homestead. He was accompanied by "Buck" Titus, one of his witnesses. John reported his section of the county looking good, feed plentiful, cattle in fine condition.

Postmaster William Schuckmann visited Patagonia the forepart of the week. Reports the burg on the banks of the Sonoita flourishing, there being unusual activity in mining in that splendid mining district, where are located some of Arizona's really great mines, including the Three R and the World's Fair properties.

John Maloney, pioneer mining man of Santa Cruz county, who is operating mines near Tucson, has been in Nogales this week, on mining business. John and his brother Michael, now deceased, many years ago owned the Pena Blanca mines in the Oro Blanco, and the Buena Vista properties in the Patagonia mountains.

P. Fontes, for a long time a passenger conductor on the Southern Pacific of Mexico, with headquarters in Nogales, Sonora, where he owns considerable real estate, accompanied by his family, is here from the City of Mexico for a visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Fontes has an important railway position with the Carranza government, with headquarters in the capital city.

Mrs. Fortune, widow of Walter, identified the high topped shoes found on the remains supposed to be those of her husband, as identical to those worn by him at the time he was drowned. The remains will be buried at Patagonia, today, under the direction of Mrs. Fortune, who was here yesterday, to identify the remains of her husband, whose tragic death is regretted by hundreds of personal friends throughout Santa Cruz county.

Juan Platt, high official of the Carranza government, arrived the forepart of the week from Mazatlan, and has since been in the city on business for his government. Mr. Platt is well known in Nogales, where he has many friends.

Thomas Schultz, editor, printer and mining man, who is now gathering data for a special mining edition of the Oasis, was here from Patagonia the forepart of the week. Tom is a pioneer of Arizona, having resided in Phoenix, Prescott and other towns in the state, more than thirty years. Everyone having business dealings with Tom Schultz will find him "on the square."

The many friends of Colonel Maden, the well known Nogales, Sonora hotel man, will be pleased to learn that he recently underwent a very successful operation, at one of the great hospitals in New York, and is on the road to complete recovery. In a letter to Mrs. Maden, the colonel says he expects to return to Nogales about the first of July, a well man. He has been knocked out over seven months.

William Meaney, well and favorably known here when he conducted The White House, has been in town several days this week, from Lordsburg, New Mexico, where he is now successfully engaged in the wet goods business. Harry McKeel, an old-time "mixologist," of this city, is manager of Mr. Meaney's business. After successfully transacting the business which brought him to Nogales, Billie departed for home last Wednesday.

"The Message of the Yosemite," lecture at the Santa Cruz Club last Tuesday evening, by Miss Mildred Leo Clemens, a cousin of the famous Mark Twain who is traveling under the auspices of the Southern Pacific travel bureau, was greatly appreciated by all who attended. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Santa Cruz Club and the Chamber of Commerce for the entertainment of members and their friends, free of charge.

L. B. Fleischer, many years a resident of this city, where he and his brother, Richard, made a pile of money in the clothing business, now manager of a big wholesale house in Tucson, spent Wednesday and Thursday in Nogales, on business for his firm, which does a nice business across the international line in Sonora. Mr. Fleischer and his brother are the principal owners of Arizona-European Mining Company, in which a number of Nogales people are financially interested. Shipping ore is being taken from the A. E. M. C.

Last Tuesday at the home of the bride's adopted parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Glover, Miss Orleatha Hannager and Carl Dammann, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony which made these two popular young people man and wife, was performed by Rev. Mobley of the Methodist church, in the presence of a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The happy couple departed Tuesday afternoon on their honeymoon trip to California and New York, returning to Nogales about August first, to make their home here.

What is believed to be the remains of the late Walter Fortune, one of Santa Cruz county's best known most highly respected citizens, who about eighteen months ago was drowned in the Sonoita river, near Patagonia, were found Wednesday by a Mexican near the Forsythe ranch sixteen or seventeen miles from the place where Mr. Fortune was caught in the raging flood waters and swept to his death. A pair of high-top laced boots believed by Sheriff McKnight to have belonged to Walter Fortune, were also found and are being kept for identification purposes.

Monday County Attorney Hilsinger and Sheriff Forbes of Pima county, came down from Tucson bringing former Deputy Sheriffs Wiley, Johns and Salazar, charged with the murder of Mrs. Bates of Tucson, who while motoring from Tucson to her suburban home late one night with her husband, was shot and instantly killed. The accused ex-officers were arraigned before Superior Judge W. A. O'Connor and their trial set for Monday, June 26th. The case will be tried here on a change of venue. Since the unfortunate affair, which is deeply regretted by everyone, the accused men, have been held in the Pima county jail, without bail.

County Recorder A. E. Reddoch today announces his candidacy for re-nomination, subject of course, to the Democratic primaries, to be held September 12th. Arcus has made good in the recorder's office, as he does in all positions of trust. He is known personally to a large majority of voters in Santa Cruz county, and needs no formal introduction. He is honest, competent, and a true blue Democrat.

Dr. Ray Ferguson, physician for the Three R and Cordation mines in the Patagonias, was here from Patagonia, Tuesday. Dr. Ferguson said there was general rejoicing at Patagonia and vicinity as a result of the recent decision in the state supreme court, in favor of Colonel R. R. Richardson, owner of the great Three R copper mines, located near Patagonia. Recently Colonel Richardson sold the Three R mines for a half million dollars, a third of which amount was claimed by Francis and Ben Heney, who won their suit in the superior court of Santa Cruz county. The supreme court decision is a complete victory for Col. Richardson, who is being congratulated by his host of friends throughout the county.

News that the Franklin Smith litigation regarding the Havalena mine, near Duquesne, this county, had been won by O. K. Franklin of this city on an appeal to the supreme court of Arizona, has been received by Mr. Franklin. As a result of the decision, local stockholders of the Havalena Mining Company, now consider their stock in the company, as a real asset. It is said that the property could have been sold several years ago for $150,000. At the present time there are said to be 400 tons of high-grade copper ore at the mine ready for shipment. If sold now, the Havalena should bring more than the price offered for it several years ago. James A. Harrison of Nogales, is receiver. C. L. Hardy, attorney for the receiver.

WILLIAM C. BUDGE DEAD.

William C. Budge, one of Nogales' best known, most highly respected citizens, passed away Thursday evening at the family residence on Crawford street, after a long illness, from Bright's disease.

Mr. Budge has resided in Arizona many years, the greater part of which he and his estimable wife spent at Phoenix and in Nogales. For many years he was in the employ of the Southern Pacific, as a conductor and assistant superintendent. Several years ago he left the service of the railroad company to engage in the insurance business in Nogales, where he owned valuable real estate.

Mr. Budge was about sixty-three years old at the time of his death, which is deeply regretted by a host of friends, all of whom join in expressing sympathy for the bereaved widow, in this her hour of terrible sorrow.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Episcopal church, interment being in the Masonic cemetery, under the auspices of the Masons, of which splendid order deceased was an active member.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Julius Kunde, deceased.

Notice is hereby given by the undersigned administrator of the estate of Julius Kunde, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within ten months after the first publication of this notice to the said administrator, at the office of Duffy & Purdum in the town of Nogales, Arizona, the same being the place for the transaction of the business of said estate, in the said County of Santa Cruz.

C. C. MCPHERSON,

Administrator of Julius Kunde, deceased.

Dated Nogales, Arizona, this sixth day of June, 1916. 6-10-5t

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Arizona-European Mining Co., will be held on the 3rd day of July, 1916, at the office of Escalada Bros., in Nogales, Arizona, at 3 p. m., for the purpose of electing a board of directors and such other business as may come before the meeting.

Nogales, Ariz., June 1, 1916.
WM. SCHUCKMANN,
June 3 11. Secretary.